The Justice Project (ēmerision: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) - Brian McLaren 2009-09-01

Justice and the call for change are in the air. Whether it's extreme poverty, human rights, racism, or the Middle East, news outlets bombard us with stories about the need for justice in the world. But how are Christians to respond to these stories and the conditions to which they refer? Here's help. Editors Brian McLaren, Elisa Padilla, and Ashley Bunting Seeber have amassed a collection of over 30 brief chapters by some of the most penetrating thinkers in the justice conversation, including René Padilla, Peggy Campolo, Will and Lisa Samson, Sylvia Keesmaat, Bart Campolo, Lynne Hybels, Tony Jones, and Richard Twiss. Divided into sections, "God of Justice," "Book of Justice," "Justice in the USA," "Just World," and "Just Church," The Justice Project invites readers to deepen their understanding of the pressures our world faces and to take up the challenge of alleviating them. Never has the world been in greater need of Christians who "do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with God." This resource will help them do just that.

No Time For Mercy - Tim Norbeck 2022-05-24

A widower in despair over the brutal death of his daughter, Stephanie, Bart Steele becomes enraged when accused killer Darrell Martin is acquitted on a legal technicality. Following the verdict in a Florida courtroom, an impromptu remark from a sympathetic court officer gives Bart the idea to seek revenge. He abandons the idea as the risks feel too great. Crown Royal becomes Bart's daily distraction and solace-until a devastating twist of fate makes him feel he has nothing to lose. Strong and athletic even at 62, Bart begins to plan how he will avenge his daughter. He becomes stealthy as he gathers information on his victim. Committing the act of vengeance sparks immediate remorse for Bart but also a sense of relief. In this tale of revenge, justice, denial and redemption, Bart moves into his new life as an avenger. An ever-faithful follower of local crime news, he dedicates himself to righting other wrongs, giving other families the closure he so craved. Convinced that Bart is a suspect, local police keep pressure on him, and his life is in constant turmoil and danger from the criminals whose lives he has become entangled in. Then, life hands Bart two additional twists of fate, a chance at new love among them, and he must decide...will he abandon his vigilante life or continue the important work of righting wrongs?

Frontier Justice - James Oliver Virmala 2019-07-10

Bart had lived a hard life, scouting for the army, guiding wagon trains, and brawling in more saloons than he could remember. His scarred fists and the Dragoon on his hip had dealt justice to all comers. Tired of the fighting, drinking, sleeping in stables or waking up in the street, Bart Nevell is determined to change, look up a past love and build a ranch in Texas.

Haunted History of Pasco County, A - Madonna Jervis Wise 2020

In a land occupied for thousands of years, mystery and unrest linger. Anguished soldierly figures dot the landscape of Pasco County, from the doomed march of Major Dade and his haunted hill to the ghost of Captain Jeffries standing watch over his homestead in Zephyrhills. A pair of spirits drifts about near a Dade City pond, perhaps the brother and sister cut down during the infamous Bradley Massacre. Echoes of the once rugged frontier rebound from the Ellis-Gillett feud, vigilantism and Sheriff Bart's justice. Obliterating the mounds of indigenous people cast an ever-present and ominous tone over sacred grounds throughout the county. Author Madonna Wise shares ethereal accounts of the Meighan Theatre, the treacherous Road to Nowhere, the Edwinola Hotel and more.
