Godard On Godard - Jean-luc Godard 1986-03-22

Jean-Luc Godard, like many of his European contemporaries, came to filmmaking through film criticism. This collection of essays and interviews, ranging from his early efforts for La Gazette du Cinéma to his later writings for Cahiers du Cinéma, reflects his dazzling intelligence, biting wit, maddening judgments, and complete unpredictability. In writing about Hitchcock, Welles, Bergman, Truffaut, Bresson, and Renoir, Godard is also writing about himself-his own experiments, obsessions, discoveries. This book offers evidence that he may be even more original as a thinker about film than as a director. Covering the period of 1950-1967, the years of Breathless, A Woman Is a Woman, My Life to Live, Alphaville, La Chinoise, and Weekend, this book of writings is an important document and a fascinating study of a vital stage in Godard's career. With commentary by Tom Milne and Richard Roud, and an extensive new foreword by Annette Michelson that reassesses Godard in light of his later films, here is an outrageous self-portrait by a director who, even now, continues to amaze and bedevil, and to chart new directions for cinema and for critical thought about its history.

Yann Tiersen - Kerber - Yann Tiersen 2021-07-01

(Piano Solo Songbook). "I think there is a similarity between the infinite big and the infinite smallness of everything," says Yann Tiersen. "It's the same experiment looking through a microscope as it is a telescope." Named after a chapel in a small village on the island of Ushant, Kerber marks a new chapter in critically-acclaimed composer Yann Tiersen's career. A chapter still true to Tiersen's nuanced and subtle approach but one that sets out with his most overtly electronic material to date. Beautifully textured, highly immersive and thoughtfully constructed, Tiersen creates an electronic world, providing an environment in which the piano source exists. A sense of place has often been a central theme in Tiersen's work and here that is no different. Each track is tied to a place mapping out the immediate landscape that surrounds Tiersen's home, linking back to his thoughts on the possibilities of the infinite smallness. This official, exclusive folio is beautifully printed on high-quality, uncoated paper with striking graphic artwork. All seven pieces are presented for solo piano and follow an exclusive introduction to the project.

Bruno Maderna - Nicola Verzina 2003

Bruno Maderna (Venise, 1920 - Darmstadt, 1973) est un des musiciens les plus importants de la seconde moitié du XXe siècle. Compositeur, chef d'orchestre et enseignant, il fût une figure protagoniste - avec Boulez, Stockhausen, Nono - des Ferienkurse de Darmstadt pendant les années cinquante et soixante. Il a adhéré au structuralisme sériel et à la poétique aléatoire mais il n'a jamais abandonné la confiance antique et profonde en les fonctions de la subjectivité esthétique. Nicola Verzina choisit deux thèmes de grande envergure, chacun étant largement présent dans la réflexion de Maderna: celui relatif à l'engagement politique et celui des dangers liés à l'industrialisation de la culture et de la société dans son ensemble. L'étude vent en outre repérer le système des choix stylistiques de Maderna en le cherchant dans le rapport conflictuel et dialectique entre le structuralisme et la subjectivité. Son point fort est l'étude du rapport entre l'histoire de la culture et les techniques compositionnelles des années cinquante et soixante. Le travail est centré sur l'analyse minutieuse des techniques structurelles présentes dans six des plus importantes œuvres de Maderna: Vier Brie (1953), la grande fresque Hyperion (1960-'70), Dimensioni III (1963-'64) le Concerto per oboe e orchestra n. 2 (1967). Stele per Diolima (1965), le Concerto n. 3 pont-hautbois et orchestre (1973).
